

who love them so dearly ; who gives them Cloaths to keep them from the Cold, and every Thing fit for them to eat ; and pay their Masters and Mistresses for the Learning that makes them wise and good.

There is far more Satisfaction in doing than receiving Good. To relieve the Oppressed is the most glorious Act a Man is capable of ; it is in some measure, doing the Business of God and Providence, unknown but to those who are Beneficent and Liberal.

Goodness is Generous and Diffusive ; 'tis Largeness of Mind and Sweetness of Temper ; Modest and sincere, Inoffensive and Obliging ; Where this Quality is Predominant, there is a noble Forwardness for publick Benefit ; an Ardour to relieve the Wants, to remove the Oppressions, and better the Condition of all Mankind.

Whoever moves you to part with a true and try'd Friend, has certainly a Design to make Way for a treacherous Enemy.
